Introduction

1. Home fees will apply to most UK and Irish students. All assessments are made in line with guidance from the UK Council of International Student Affairs (UKCISA).
2. The fees outlined below form part of your contract with the University. In addition, this document outlines details of financial support provided by Student Finance England and the University, and also available payment methods.
3. If you have any queries relating to fees, please contact our Admissions Team.

Tuition Fees<sup>1</sup>

	Amount	Payable
Home status student	£9,250 per annum	The annual tuition fee must be paid by 30 September or in accordance with any agreed payment plan (see the Payment section of this document).

Northeastern University London Financial Support

4. Northeastern University London offers generous bursaries. Further information on the University's bursary scheme can be found on the University's website, and/or via the Admissions Team.

External Financial Support

Student Finance

5. Most students from England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland can apply for a tuition fee loan.
6. The University is an Approved (fee cap) higher education provider for the purposes of Office for Student registration. As such, eligible UK students can obtain loans to cover the whole of their undergraduate fee.
7. To apply for student finance, please visit: www.gov.uk/student-finance.

Payment

Individual Payment Schedule

8. There are a number of ways you can pay your fees:
  - 8.1. Annually: payable before or on 30 September
  - 8.2. By semester: 2 equal instalments on 30 September and 30 January
  - 8.3. Monthly: 8 monthly instalments – starting in September and ending in April
9. Your actual payment to the University will be dependent on whether you have obtained a student loan, and are awarded a bursary.
10. The University can, on request, supply students who have accepted an offer of a place with an individual payment schedule, taking into account any preferred method of payment and any external and internal financial support that may apply. To obtain an individual payment schedule, please contact the Finance Team.
11. Please note that in the event that you leave the University prior to completing your courses, you will be subject to the University's Cancellation, Withdrawal, Refund and Compensation Policy. Any payment required under this policy will not take into consideration any bursary award.
