The Role

Northeastern University London wishes to appoint an Assistant or Associate Professor (Teaching & Scholarship) in Accounting and Finance. The appointee will help develop our UK undergraduate degree apprenticeship programmes in the area of Accounting and Finance and provide general service to the University within and across faculties. In the first instance, the successful candidate will be expected to lead the development and delivery of the university's online BSc (Hons) Applied Accounting and Finance degree apprenticeship (Level 6 Accounting Finance Manager).

We wish to appoint a specialist in Accounting and Finance. Preference may be given to candidates with experience of English apprenticeships, working with professional bodies, e.g., Institute of Financial Accountants, ACCA and CIMA, and active interests in the relationship of digital transformation and change management.

Assistant or Associate Professor (Teaching & Scholarship) in Accounting and Finance Job Description

Core duties will include the development and teaching of cutting-edge courses in Accounting and Finance both online and on campus, assessment and moderation, student support, peer review, etc.

We particularly encourage applications from those with an interest in innovative teaching, learning and assessment; those with experience of supporting a wide variety of students; and those belonging to groups underrepresented in UK higher education. We are open to appointing on a reduced fraction/job-share basis subject to our business needs.

The role is suitable for hybrid working, provided the appointee is able to attend the campus (Devon House, London) for face-to-face work as and when required.

Discipline/ Faculty

The appointee will work in a multidisciplinary, cross-faculty team responsible for the degree apprenticeship programmes that span the Faculty of Social Sciences and the Faculty of Computing, Mathematics, Engineering and Natural Sciences.

The cross-faculty degree apprenticeship team uses innovative pedagogical approaches and best practices in digital education and collaboration to ensure an excellent learner experience for individuals or groups of learners, wherever they are based. The team currently delivers a growing portfolio of work-related learning aligned to digital transformation, data science, artificial intelligence, clinical trials, project management, and accounting & finance.

About the University

Founded in 2012, Northeastern University London (formerly known as New College of the Humanities) has established itself as a prestigious higher education institution based in the heart of London.
